

Don't sell out. Stand up for the right of the people. Variety is the spice of life and that will be destroyed if you let the big companys buy out all the little stations.